Living God's Word

We pray that we come to know who Jesus is and how he is calling us to enter into his ministry to bring life to our world. We pray that we might better understand what we need to die to, so that God's reign might become more present in our world.

Dear Parishioners,

Our Parish Carnival is less than a week away. We still need help in several areas, and ask your cooperation THIS WEEK:

Donate cases of canned soda or bottled water – leave by priests' garages this week.

Make a cash or check donation to help us purchase individual items needed for food booth.

Sign up to help at one of the booths. Use the form in today's bulletin or sign up next weekend.

Purchase discounted ride tickets at the rectory Monday – Friday 10am-4pm or outside next weekend.

Come and support the carnival and invite others to come, too!

This weekend, of course, we hold in dear remembrance all those who perished in the Sept. 11, 2001 terror attacks on our country and their families, as well as the many first responders and volunteers who have died since then or continue to suffer from health conditions caused by the hazardous toxins emanating especially from the World Trade Center site during the recovery and cleanup. Let us never forget to pray for peace in our world, and in the hearts of people of every nation and tongue!

Msgr. Richard Arnolds, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

Going to the school of Jesus was not always easy for the disciples. Beginning with this event, Jesus begins to educate them about what it means to be his disciple. He starts with the basics: Who he is. Like a good teacher, he engages them in a discussion, asking two questions, going from the easier one to the more demanding one: Who do others say I am? Who do you say I am?

The first question gets a quick answer, but the second one gets only Peter's response. By saying "You are the Christ" (Mark 8:29), Peter was naming Jesus as the long-awaited Anointed One, the one who would come to restore Israel's political kingdom and overthrow the Romans. But this was not to be. Jesus counters Peter by speaking of himself as the Son of Man who must suffer, be rejected, be killed, and then rise after three days.

Peter is aghast at this and places himself in front of Jesus so that Jesus has to tell him to get behind him. Peter is blocking his way, like an obstacle, a stumbling block, an adversary (Satan), preventing Jesus from going in the direction he is heading. Peter had learned about a Messiah of power and prestige and Jesus was talking about a Man of pain and punishment. Peter wanted a political Messiah, not a suffering one. Peter saw the disciples taking part in the pomp and pageantry of a new age, and Jesus was speaking of denying oneself and picking up a cross.

But graduating from the school of Jesus means moving out of our comfort zone into a distressful district: a place where we take up the cross of self-denial and self-sacrifice. Of course, it all depends on how we answer his question: Who do you say that I am? —James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R. Copyright © 2014, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." MARK 8:34

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

Estimados Feligreses,

Nuestro Carnaval Parroquial está a menos de una semana. Todavía necesitamos ayuda en varias áreas, y le pedimos su cooperación ESTA SEMANA:

Puede donar cajas de sodas en latas o botellas de agua: por favor dejar en los garajes de los sacerdotes esta semana. Haga una donación en efectivo o con cheque para ayudarnos a comprar los artículos individuales necesarios para los puestos de comida.

Regístrese para ayudar en uno de los puestos. Utilice el formulario del boletín de hoy o regístrese el próximo fin de semana. Compre boletos de las atracciones con descuento en la rectoría de lunes a viernes de 10 am a 4 pm o afuera de la iglesia el próximo fin de semana.

¡Ven y apoya el carnaval e invita a otros a venir también!

Este fin de semana, recordaremos con mucho cariño a todos los que murieron en los ataques terroristas del 11 de septiembre del 2001 en nuestro país y sus familias, así como a los muchos socorristas y voluntarios que han muerto desde entonces o que continúan sufriendo de condiciones de salud causadas por las toxinas peligrosas que emanan especialmente en el World Trade Center durante la recuperación y limpieza. ¡No olvidemos nunca orar por la paz en nuestro mundo y en los corazones de las personas de todas las naciones y lenguas!

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

Ir a la escuela de Jesús no siempre fue fácil para los discípulos. Comenzando con el suceso que escuchamos hoy, Jesús empieza a educarlos acerca de lo que significa ser un discípulo suyo y empieza con lo básico: Quién es él. Como buen maestro entabla un diálogo entre ellos haciéndoles dos preguntas, una que es más fácil y la otra que es más exigente: ¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo? Y según ustedes, ¿quién soy yo?

A la primera pregunta viene una respuesta rápida, pero la segunda sólo la responde Pedro. Al decir "Tú eres el Mesías" (Marcos 8:29) Pedro estaba diciendo que Jesús era el Ungido tan esperado, el que restauraría el reino político de Israel y derrocaría a los romanos; pero no era eso lo que iba a suceder. Jesús le da la contra a Pedro al referirse a sí mismo como el Hijo del hombre, que debía sufrir, que lo matarían y que a los tres días resucitaría.

Pedro se horroriza con eso y se pone ante Jesús, de manera que Jesús tiene que decirle que se coloque detrás de él. Pedro le está obstruyendo el paso, como un obstáculo, un escollo, un adversario (Satanás), evitando que Jesús vaya hacia donde se dirige. Pedro sabía acerca de un Mesías con poder y prestigio, y Jesús hablaba de un Hombre sufrido y castigado. Pedro quería un Mesías político, no uno sufriente. Pedro se imaginó a los discípulos en medio de toda la pompa y suntuosidad de una era nueva, y Jesús hablaba de negarse a uno mismo y cargar una cruz.

Para graduarse de la escuela de Jesús tenemos que salirnos de nuestro elemento y dirigimos a un distrito desolador: un lugar de sacrificio donde cargamos con la cruz de negarnos a nosotros mismos. Por supuesto que todo depende en cómo cada uno de nosotros conteste la pregunta que él nos hace: ¿Quién soy yo para tí? —James A. "Quienquiera que desee venir conmigo debe negarse a sí mismo, tomar su cruz, y seguirme." MARCOS 8:34

Vivir un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad no solamente es ser responsable de mi propia vida, sino también de las vidas de otros. Nos damos cuenta de que nuestros dones no son solo para nosotros, sino más bien para compartirlos con los demás. "Cargar mi cruz" significa hacer las cosas cuando alguien más me necesita y no cuando es conveniente para mí.
