Living God's Word

Isaiah's servant sounds like the wise and wrinkled old one whose selfless devotion helped make his marriage work, one who knowingly and willingly bore the guilt of others. This is also our image of Jesus.

Is our image of ourselves like it?

Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

It gives me great joy to announce that our Parish Carnival last month raised $16,682.86 for our parish! This is more than double our 2019 figure, and does not take into account the Giant 50-50 Raffle as we joined this year's to the 50-50 Raffle of the Filipino Apostolate, which will conclude this weekend.

Our carnival success is due to many factors: generally good weather, outstanding sales at our Barbecue and Food Booths, a strong performance of rides and games, and the most generous amount of donations from the local business community as well as so many parishioners, who contributed both money and beverages. Of course, I thank our Coordinators and all the people who volunteered to help. Together, we continue to do great things for our parish!

I call your attention to our 20 Hours Adoration to take place this weekend, starting after the 7:30pm Mass on Friday and continuing through 4:00pm on Saturday. Please see the adoration hourly schedule with intentions on page 2. Various groups will sponsor the different hours with their own offerings of prayer and praise, but all individuals are welcome to spend some time during this month of the Holy Rosary in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Msgr. Richard Arnhols, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

The text of this weekend's Isaiah reading speaks of a servant whose suffering and afflictions are borne for the many. Father Daniel Berrigan once said that the call of the disciple of Jesus is to absorb evil. Not very glorious, indeed, for servants absorb the leftovers of the household's extravagance. Those at the bottom of life's pyramid absorb the muck; swamps and lowlands absorb the runoff of life's fields. Just so parents absorb our tears. And those who forgive absorb the blow. As the warrior absorbs the enemy's hate, so the conscientious objector absorbs the need for revenge. So also the embrace absorbs our fears, justice absorbs mistrust, love absorbs the distance of hearts, and the sharing of bread absorbs the memory of pain. In such ways God makes the world new.

The fear, and perhaps the sadness as well, is that in absorbing the evil of life we do become at least to some extent that which we absorb. Then those who gaze upon us do so as if we ourselves were afflicted and diseased. Then those who minister to dying AIDS patients are themselves eyed with suspicion and fear. Then the conscientious objector is expelled by the patriot, and the selfless warrior is cast off into indifference by the righteous purist. Then the Alzheimer caregiver is forgotten; the one who forgives the abuse is revenged; and the one who combats poverty with generosity grows poorer while the hoarder is glorified. And, contradiction of contradictions, the crucified Christ becomes the Christ who reigns. And so we become like him. —Rev. Joseph J. Jukialis

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

- MARK 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

Our Sunday Offering: Sunday, Sept. 5, 2021 — $15,326.73

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

¡Me da gran alegría anunciar que nuestro Carnaval Parroquial el mes pasado recaudó $16,682,86 para nuestra parroquia! Esto es más del doble de nuestra cifra del 2019, y no tiene en cuenta el Sorteo de la rifa 50-50, ya que nos unimos al Sorteo 50-50 del Apostolado Filipino de este año, que concluirá este fin de semana.

Nuestro éxito en el carnaval se debe a muchos factores: buen clima en general, ventas sobresalientes en nuestros puestos de barbeque y comida, un buen desempeño de atracciones y juegos, y las generosas donaciones de varios negocios de la comunidad, así como de tantos feligreses, que contribuyeron tanto con dinero o con bebidas. Por supuesto, agradezco a nuestros coordinadores y a todas las personas que se ofrecieron como voluntarias para ayudar. ¡Juntos, continuamos haciendo grandes cosas por nuestra parroquia!

Llamo su atención sobre nuestra Adoración de las 20 Horas que tendrá lugar este fin de semana. Después de la Misa del viernes a las 7:30 pm comenzará las 20 horas de Adoración Eucarística liderada por nuestros diversos grupos parroquiales con una intención específica cada hora. Vea el horario de adoración en la página 2 de este boletín. Todos están invitados a pasar un tiempo durante este mes del Santo Rosario en honor a la Santísima Virgen María.

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

El texto de la lectura de Isaías este fin de semana nos habla sobre un siervo que soporta sus sufrimientos y aflicciones en beneficio de muchos. El padre Daniel Berrigan dijo una vez que el discípulo de Jesús está llamado a absorber la maldad. Esto no es muy glorioso, ya que los sirvientes absorben las sobras que dejan las extravagancias de la familia. Aquellos que están en lo más bajo de la pirámide de la vida absorben el fango; los pantanos y ciénagas absorben los desagües de los campos de la vida. De la misma manera los padres absorben nuestras lágrimas. Y aquellas personas que perdonan absorben el golpe. Así como el guerrero absorbe el odio del enemigo, de la misma manera el opositor de conciencia absorbe la necesidad de venganza. Y así también un abrazo absorbe nuestros temores, la justicia absorbe la desconfianza, el amor absorbe la distancia de los corazones y el compartir el pan absorbe el recuerdo de un dolor. De esas maneras Dios hace un mundo nuevo.

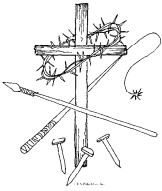

Lo temeroso y tal vez triste a la vez es que al absorber la maldad nos convertimos, al menos hasta cierto punto, en aquello que hemos absorbido. Entonces sucede que los que nos miran nos ven como si estuviéramos afligidos y enfermos. Así pasa también con aquellos que atienden a los personas que sufren del SIDA, la gente los ven con sospecha y temor. Sucede entonces que el opositor de conciencia es expulsado por el patriota y el guerrero altruista es abandonado a la indiferencia por los puritanos santurriones. Y así también son olvidados los que cuidan de los que sufren Alzheimer; los que perdonan un abuso son vengados; y los que luchan con entrega contra la pobreza se hacen más pobres mientras los acaparadores son glorificados. Y, contradicción de contradicciones, el Cristo crucificado se convierte en Cristo Rey. Y nosotros llegamos a asemejarnos a él. —Padre Joseph J. Si sostuviera un espejo frente a su vida, ¿reflejaría el amor y la misericordia de Dios? Si está teniendo dificultades con eso, trate de cambiar su actitud de “quiero más” a “gracias a Dios por todo lo que me has dado, tengo suficiente para compartir”. Este cambio en perspectivas le traerá alegría a través del servicio a los demás. Ore diariamente para ser menos egoísta y más centrado en Dios.

El siervo de Isaías es como el anciano sabio y arrugado, cuya entrega abnegada fue lo que ayudó a salvar su matrimonio, o sea que a sabiendas y por propia voluntad cargó con la culpa de otros.
