Living God's Word

It does seem that somewhere along the path of life, the wine runs out for each of us. We get bored with jobs, or relationships, or maybe just the same four old walls. We can lament the loss of old wine, or we can open a new bottle, and carry on God's work perhaps in a new way.

Dr. Martin Luther King day 1/17/22

Monday our nation pauses to remember Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and his nonviolent approach to the cause of equal rights for all people regardless of race or skin color. Although we will have our regular daily Mass schedule, the offices of the rectory and the religious education center will be closed.

March for Life

Due to the omicron surge, our parish and Knights of Columbus Council have decided not to participate in the March for Life in Washington DC this year. We invite you to join us for the 7:30pm Mass on Thursday, January 20th, as we pray that every person may choose to protect and foster human life.

Come & Pray

This week's Adoration Schedule:
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
12pm—6:30pm

SYNOD PRAYER

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I wish to thank all those whose Christmas gifts to the parish and its clergy reminded us of your love and care. May God bless us all in this new year!

Now we turn our attention to the Synod called by Pope Francis. It is an attempt to reach out to as many of the 2 billion active and inactive Catholics around the world to hear their thoughts on how they think the Holy Spirit is calling us as a Church to announce the Gospel in the 21st Century. We will be asked to consider how we are “journeying together” in our parish community, how we are walking together as a church, and what steps the Holy Spirit is inviting us to take to grow in this journeying together.

We will try to do this at St. John's both by a polling session during our Masses on the last weekend of January, and by a general listening session open to anyone and everyone in Conlon Hall on a Saturday in late February. More details will follow. For now, please pray daily the Synod prayer which you will find elsewhere in today's bulletin.

Msgr. Richard Arnholts, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

“Do whatever he tells you,” is what today's Gospel pointedly suggests (John 2:5). Perhaps too pointedly, because it just may turn out that none of what he tells us seems appealing. Be that as it may, life does serve up new wine.

Yet as always the question remains, how does anyone know what we're being told to do? How does one read the signs of personal times? A good marker, it would seem, is to pay attention to one's gifts. It may not be the only marker, but certainly one not to be ignored. St. Paul writes to the Corinthians that our strengths and talents come from the Spirit, and that each is given for some benefit. Other translations say they are given for the common good, which seems to be a better way of putting it, because it broadens our view and prevents us from understanding any gift in terms of personal benefit or preference. It may be that the old wine we just drained did quench our personal thirst, but that the new wine is for the common good.

So when the old wine runs out and we're offered new wine, it's worth considering whether we're being called to some new role in life. It may be that life is ratcheting up our degree of participation, calling us to make some new contribution we have not even considered. And we may be surprised. It may enrich the taste of life.

On this day, then, raise a toast to God's new creation. To new wine. The British say Cheers! The Germans, Prosit! Poles, Na Zdrowie! In Spain, Salud! And Lithuanians, Sveikas! Believers, well, they say Alleluia! —Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis *Copyright © 2012, World Library Publications. Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” - 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Deseo agradecer a todos aquellos cuyos regalos de Navidad a la parroquia y su clero nos recordaron su amor y cuidado. ¡Que Dios los bendiga a todos en este nuevo año!

Ahora dirigimos nuestra atención al Sínodo convocado por el Papa Francisco. Es un intento de llegar a muchos de los 2 mil millones de católicos activos e inactivos de todo el mundo para escuchar sus pensamientos sobre cómo creen que el Espíritu Santo nos está llamando como Iglesia para anunciar el Evangelio en el siglo XXI. Se nos pedirá que consideremos cómo estamos “caminando juntos” en nuestra comunidad parroquial, y como iglesia y qué pasos nos está invitando el Espíritu Santo a dar para crecer en este caminar juntos.

Trataremos de hacer esto en San Juan mediante una encuesta durante las Misas el último fin de semana de enero. También con una sesión de compartir ideas abierta para todos en el Conlon Hall un sábado a finales de febrero. Estén pendientes para más detalles. Por ahora, oren diariamente la oración del Sínodo que encontrarán en otra parte del boletín de hoy.

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

“Hagan lo que él les diga” es lo que nos sugiere categóricamente el Evangelio de hoy (Juan 2:5). Tal vez nos parezca que eso sugiere demasiado categóricamente ya que tal vez nada de lo que él nos dice nos parece atrayente. Así y todo, la vida siempre nos brinda un vino nuevo.

Aun así la pregunta continúa latente: ¿Cómo se puede saber lo que se nos requiere hacer? ¿Cómo se pueden leer los signos de los tiempos a nivel personal? Es probable que una pista nos la pudieran dar los dones que hemos recibido. No tiene que ser la única pista, pero ésta ciertamente no la deberíamos ignorar. San Pablo le escribe a los corintios diciéndoles que nuestros carismas y talentos vienen del Espíritu y que se nos dan por el bien de todos. Esto último debe ampliar nuestro horizonte e impedir que veamos esos dones como un beneficio personal o una preferencia. Pudiera ser que el vino de poca calidad que acabamos de consumir mitigara nuestra sed, pero el vino nuevo es para el bien común.

Así es que cuando el vino de poca calidad se acaba y se nos ofrece un vino nuevo valdría la pena considerar si se nos está llamando a un nuevo rol en la vida. Puede ser que la vida esté llevándonos a un mayor nivel de participación, a hacer alguna nueva contribución, que antes ni habíamos considerado. Y puede que nos sorprenda. Puede ser que enriquezca nuestro sabor de la vida.

Así pues, en este día, haz un brindis por la nueva creación de Dios. Por el vino nuevo. Los británicos dicen ¡Cheers! Los alemanes ¡Prosit! Los polacos ¡Na Zdrowie! En España dicen ¡Salud! Y los lituanos brindan con ¡Sveikas! Los creyentes, bueno, los creyentes decimos ¡Aleluya! —Padre Joseph J. Juknialis Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications. “A cada uno se le da una manifestación especial del Espíritu para el bien de los demás.”
-1 Corintios 12:7

San Pablo nos dice que Dios nos bendijo a cada uno de nosotros por una razón... ¿Como te ha bendecido Dios? ¿Estás utilizando tus dones de acuerdo con el plan de Dios?... ¿Cómo estás ayudando a construir el reino de Dios aquí en la tierra? Recuerde que si no hace el trabajo que Dios planificó para usted, nadie más podrá hacerlo. Viva la vida que Dios quiere para usted. Tómese el tiempo para discernir sus carismas (dones del Espíritu Santo)... Experimente la Paz sobrenatural y la Alegría que Dios desea para cada uno de nosotros.

St. John's 2021 Giving Tree Project

Thanks to the generosity of all the members of the St John's community, we were able to collect and distribute over 600 gifts to various organizations and individuals during the Christmas season. Our Giving Tree Project provides gifts for organizations and members within St. John's and organizations in our local area. This year, we helped 17 organizations provide gifts to the people that they serve. These organizations are:

St. Rocco's and St. Bridget's Church, Union City, NJ and St. Mary of the Assumption Church, Elizabeth NJ-

We provided gift cards and small gifts to poor children in their confirmation classes.

Holy Name Hospital- We provided gifts for long term hospital residents.

Care One- Woodcrest, New Milford, NJ- We provided blankets for patients.

St. Joseph's Home For the Elderly, Totowa, NJ- This facility serves poor elderly and is run by The Little Sisters of the Poor.

We provided gift cards for the residents.

Covenant House, Newark, NJ- Provides housing, food, medical and other services for homeless teenagers and teens who have aged out of the foster care system. We provided gift cards for Covenant House residents.

Center for Hope and Safety (CHS)- CHS provides multiple services to victims of domestic violence in the Bergen County area.

We provided gifts for children and families served by CHS.

Vantage Health System (VHS)- VHS provides services to Bergen County residents with mental and emotional issues.

We provided specific gifts requested by VHS.

New Jersey Community Development Corporation (NJCDC), Paterson, NJ- NJCDC provides a range of services to families in the Paterson area. We provided gifts to assist NJCDC in their efforts.

St. John's Hispanic Community and Food Pantry- We provided gifts to help families in our Hispanic community and those that need our Food Pantry.

Homeless Residents- We provided sweatshirts to local homeless residents.

Children's Aid and Family Service (CAFS), Paramus, NJ - CAFS provides a range of services to children and families throughout northern New Jersey. We provided specified gifts requested by CAFS.

Bergen County Office of Children (BCOC), Hackensack, NJ- BCOC provides services to children of families served by the Bergen County Department of Human Services. We provided gifts to assist BCOC in its efforts.

Birthright, Maywood, NJ, New Hope, Westwood, NJ, Light House, Hawthorne and Hackensack, NJ, Mercy House, Newark and Hackensack, NJ— Provides assistance and resources to pregnant women in the local area. We provided diapers and other baby items to help in their efforts.

The Giving Tree Project could not have been completed without the help of many people. Among those that were very important to the success of our project were Pat Weldin, Bernie McEachern, Mary Cox, Ron Lyon, Winston and Bridget Fleming and their family, Kristaly Kusabe, multiple CCD students, Joe Verga, Ben Cabrera and members of Troop 139, Ana Sanchez, Bernadette McCabe and the rectory staff.

This year the members of the St John Community have again shown their great generosity and desire to help the less fortunate. The Giving Tree is another example of St John's Church's continuing effort to live the Gospel message of loving our neighbors.

Thank you all!

— Jack Weldin Jr.

Oración por el Sínodo

Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo, reunidos en tu nombre. Tú que eres nuestro verdadero consejero: ven a nosotros, apóyanos, entra en nuestros corazones. Enséñanos el camino, muéstranos cómo alcanzar la meta. Impide que perdamos el rumbo como personas débiles y pecadoras.

No permitas que la ignorancia nos lleve por falsos caminos. Concédenos el don del discernimiento, para que no dejemos que nuestras acciones se guíen por prejuicios y falsas consideraciones. Condúcenos a la unidad en ti, para que no nos desviemos del camino de la verdad y la justicia, sino que en nuestro peregrinaje terrenal nos esforcemos por alcanzar la vida eterna. Esto te lo pedimos a ti, que obras en todo tiempo y lugar, en comunión con el Padre y el Hijo por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

En algún momento de la vida el vino parece como que se nos acaba. Nos aburriríamos de nuestros empleos o de las mismas cuatro paredes. Tenemos la opción de lamentarnos por perder el vino de mala calidad o podemos abrir una botella de vino nuevo y seguir adelante con la obra de Dios, tal vez de una manera nueva. *Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications.
