Living God's Word

“Renounce your possessions,” the Gospel insists (Luke 14:33). We can't say that we always have. Rather, it seems that we've often done more accumulating than renouncing. And yet each accumulation may have made room for one more way of being made new as the disciples we all are called to become.

Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Tomorrow is Labor Day, the unofficial end of summer and the beginning of the school and activity year. As it is also a national holiday, we will only have one concelebrated Mass at 9:00am on Monday, and the offices of the rectory and religious education center will be closed. Members of our parish Rosary Society will pray the Rosary immediately following the Mass, as they will do this year on each first Monday of the month after the 9:00am Mass. This holiday celebrates the many valuable contributions to our well-being that those who use their talents in the work force bring to our society, while at the same time encouraging all employers to offer just and considerate compensation to their employees.

Next weekend, the annual collection for the support of the Catholic University of America will be taken at all the Masses. C.U. is a pontifical university of the Catholic Church in the United States, a national research university with over 5,700 students, and the only institution of higher education founded by the U. S. Catholic bishops. As always, we appreciate your generous support in this second collection.

Msgr. Richard Arnholds, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

It's said that we never really grow up until both of our parents have died. I suspect that most who have had to walk that path recognize some truth there. So when the Gospel advises us to turn our back on father and mother and family and even on ourselves—maybe it's not about rejecting but about becoming able to live the gospel more maturely, about releasing our grip on the past and growing up. Maybe letting go of childish things is the cost and also the wisdom of the God who waits patiently for us.

One of life's tasks, it seems, is to learn the balancing act between loving without possessiveness and relinquishing without indifference or abandonment. In truth, perhaps we never really learn to balance the two. We mostly lean in the direction opposite where we are at the time, until we suspect we may have leaned too far and switch directions. It's a wisdom we come to that's worthwhile for parenting but also for marriage and one's profession and growing old and just about everything else that life serves up.

This balancing is also at the heart of faith and discipleship. It's how we come to recognize the hand of God in our lives, by living in such a way that God has the freedom to rearrange the pieces and so bring us to fuller life. It's the wisdom that teaches us how to be a disciple but also the sort of discipleship that brings us to wisdom. It's also the light shining forth in today's reading from the book of Wisdom. —Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis Copyright © 2012, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Mañana es Labor Day, el final del verano y el comienzo del año escolar y de actividades. Como también es fiesta nacional, solo tendremos una Misa concelebrada a las 9:00am el lunes, y las oficinas de la Rectoría y de Educación Religiosa estarán cerradas. Los miembros de la Sociedad del Rosario de nuestra parroquia rezarán el Rosario inmediatamente después de la Misa, como lo harán este año cada primer lunes del mes después de la Misa de las 9:00am. Este día festivo celebra las muchas contribuciones valiosas a nuestro bienestar que aquellos que utilizar sus talentos en la fuerza laboral que aportan a nuestra sociedad, al mismo tiempo que anima a todos los empleadores a ofrecer una compensación justa y considerada a sus empleados.

El próximo fin de semana se realizará la colecta anual para el sostenimiento de la Universidad Católica de América en todas las Misas. La Universidad Católica de América es una universidad pontificia de la Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos, una universidad nacional de investigación con más de 5700 estudiantes y la única institución de educación superior fundada por los obispos católicos de los Estados Unidos. Como siempre, agradecemos su generoso apoyo en esta segunda colecta.

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

Se dice que nunca en realidad crecemos hasta que nuestros padres mueren. Me imagino que la mayoría de las personas que han pasado por eso reconocen que hay cierta verdad ahí. Por eso cuando el Evangelio nos aconseja a renunciar a nuestro padre y a nuestra madre, a la familia y aun a nosotros mismos, tal vez no se trate de rechazar sino de poder vivir el Evangelio de una manera más madura, dejar de agarrarnos al pasado y crecer. Quizás nos cueste abandonar las niñerías, pero la sabiduría de Dios espera pacientemente por nosotros.

Parece que una de las tareas de la vida es aprender a equilibrar entre amar sin poseer y renunciar sin indiferencia o abandono. Tal vez nunca aprendamos a equilibrar esas dos cosas. En la mayoría de los casos nos inclinamos más en dirección opuesta a la que nos encontramos, hasta que sospechamos que nos hemos inclinado demasiado y es entonces que cambiamos de dirección. Ésta es una sabiduría que vamos adquiriendo, y que nos es provechosa para ser padre o madre y también para el matrimonio, para nuestra profesión, para madurar y para cualquier otro momento que nos depare la vida.

Este equilibrio está también en el centro de nuestra fe y de nuestro discipulado, pues nos ayuda a reconocer la mano de Dios en nuestra vida y a vivir de tal manera que Dios tenga la libertad de cambiar las cosas a fin de llevarnos a una vida más plena. Ésta es la sabiduría que nos enseña a ser discípulo o discípula y a la misma vez es la clase de discipulado que nos lleva a la sabiduría. La lectura de hoy del libro de la Sabiduría nos ilumina con su luz.—Padre Joseph J. Juknialis Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados.

Administradores: ¡Compartiendo Nuestro Tiempo, Talento, Y Tesoro!

“Cualquiera de ustedes que no renuncie a todas sus posesiones no puede ser mi discípulo” LUCAS 14:33

Cuando oímos esta afirmación por primera vez, parece que Jesús nos está haciendo una demanda poco realista. ¿Cómo podemos renunciar a todas nuestras posesiones? Las necesitamos para vivir. Sin embargo, a lo que debemos renunciar es a la creencia de que nos pertenecen. Todo lo que tenemos le pertenece únicamente a Dios. Todos esos recursos se nos confiaron no sólo para nuestro propio uso, sino también para que pudiéramos ayudar a los demás. Al renunciar a la idea de que poseemos esos recursos o que tenemos derecho a algo, es mucho más fácil compartir los muchos dones que Dios nos ha dado. Entonces, seremos realmente Sus Discípulos.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

“Renuncia a todo lo que tienes”, insiste el Evangelio (véase Lucas 14:33). Nadie puede decir que siempre ha hecho eso. Por el contrario, parece que siempre acumulamos más de lo que renunciamos. Y sin embargo, con cada acumulación perdemos una oportunidad de renovarnos y convertirnos en los discípulos que estamos llamados a ser. Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications.
