Living God's Word

God does seem to find us, and also finds a life calling for us, and finds love for us, and finds meaning for us, and even finds a way out of our sin for us—even when we didn't know we needed to be found.

Adults seeking to enter the Catholic Church, either unbaptized or baptized in another denomination, are invited to inquire about our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults preparation program which will begin later this month. This program is also open to baptized Catholics who have not received First Communion or Confirmation. For more information, contact Deacon Jim at the rectory for English or Deacon Airán at the Religious Education office for Spanish.

Catechesis for Adults

"Come to me all you who are tired and burdened and I will give you rest." -Matthew 11:28

Let us not be afraid to ask ourselves:

- What am I living for?
- Do I live my Faith in my everyday life?
- Do my sufferings have meaning behind them?
- Am I tired of living my faith alone?
- How can I pass faith to my children or grandchildren?

COME AND LISTEN!

The announcement of the love of God must be announced to every generation.

Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, the annual collection for the support of the Catholic University of America will be taken at all the Masses. C.U.A. is a pontifical university of the Catholic Church in the United States, a national research university with over 5,700 students, and the only institution of higher education founded by the U.S. Catholic bishops. Catholic University's motto — God Is My Light — is a constant reminder of their origin and mission. For 135 years, it has guided the University as they educate students who go on to serve the nation and transform the world. Gifts to the National Collection not only provide critical support to students, but also help the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs such as the Catholic Project, an initiative that brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges faced by the Catholic Church. As always, we appreciate your generous support in this second collection.

This Sunday, of course, also marks the 21st Anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on our country. Our simple display in church invites our prayers for all who perished on that day or due to effects thereafter, while at the same time especially remembering the four associated with our Bergenfield community: Jack Aron, Bill Meehan, Pete Negron, and Derek Washington. May they forever rest in God's eternal peace, and may governments strive to promote greater peace, harmony, and understanding!

Msgr. Richard Arnholz, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

Writing, it seems, is mostly about waiting, though most of us tend to think of it as a pen-in-hand sort of thing, or a fingers-on-the-keyboard activity. Eventually it does come to that, but much of the time before can be spent waiting. Some would say it's waiting for the muse to show, or imagination to kick in, or for the idea to float free.

Anyone who has ever tried to do some writing—a description of what it's like to fall in love or a piece of poetry or an attempt to share the meandering path of a soul's journey—knows that such writing takes a great deal of waiting before it can happen, if indeed it ever happens at all. And sometimes when it does happen, it feels more like being found than it does like succeeding.

Many of the inner pieces of our lives seem to be like that. Discovering one's calling, falling in love, faith and the conversion that gives rise to it, recognizing the gifts sewn into the hems and cuffs of our lives—they all seem to find us rather than the other way around. Sometimes it's even in spite of our own efforts. Sometimes they feel like the very work and intention of the Divine One.

The scriptures are filled with stories of God doing the finding, even when we didn't know we'd been lost. That's the way it is with us and God—so often being found without even asking. —Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis Copyright © 2012, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"Everything I have is yours." LUKE 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Este fin de semana se realizará la colecta anual para el sostenimiento de la Universidad Católica de América en todas las Misas. C.U.A. es una universidad pontificia de la Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos, una universidad nacional de investigación con más de 5700 estudiantes y la única institución de educación superior fundada por los obispos católicos de los Estados Unidos. El lema de la Universidad Católica, Dios es mi luz, es un recordatorio constante de su origen y misión. Durante 135 años, ha guiado a la Universidad a medida que educan a los estudiantes que continúan sirviendo a la nación y transformando el mundo. Las donaciones a la Colecta Nacional no solo brindan un apoyo crítico a los estudiantes, sino que también ayudan a la Universidad a servir a las diócesis y parroquias a través de iniciativas de investigación innovadoras y programas de capacitación como el Proyecto Católico, una iniciativa que reúne al clero y a los laicos para abordar los desafíos que enfrenta la Iglesia Católica. Como siempre, agradecemos su generoso apoyo en esta segunda colecta.

Este domingo, por supuesto, también marca el 21 Aniversario de los ataques terroristas del 11 de septiembre del 2001 en nuestro país. Nuestra sencilla exhibición en la iglesia invita a nuestras oraciones por todos los que perecieron ese día o debido a los efectos posteriores, mientras que al mismo tiempo recordamos especialmente a los cuatro asociados con nuestra comunidad de Bergenfield: Jack Aron, Bill Meehan, Pete Negron y Derek Washington. ¡Que descansen para siempre en la paz eterna de Dios, y que los gobiernos se esfuercen por promover una mayor paz, armonía y comprensión!

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

Parece ser que el escribir es más que nada una espera, aunque la mayoría de nosotros tiende a pensar que es una actividad con la pluma en la mano o los dedos en un teclado. A la larga llega a ser esto último, pero una gran parte del tiempo se pasa en una espera. Algunos dicen que es una espera para que llegue la musa o un brote de la imaginación, o para que las ideas salgan a flote.

Cualquiera que haya tratado de escribir algo, ya sea una descripción de qué se siente cuando uno está enamorado, una poesía o un intento de compartir historia de un alma, sabe que hay mucho tiempo de espera antes de ponerse a escribir algo semejante, si es que se llega a escribir. Y algunas veces, cuando llegamos a escribir, hay más una sensación de encuentro de sí mismo que de logro.

Muchas de las partes interiores de nuestra vida parecen ser así. Descubrir nuestra vocación, enamorarse, recibir la fe con su consecuente conversión y reconocer nuestros dones en medio de todos los recovecos de la vida son cosas que nos encuentran a nosotros en vez de lo contrario. Algunas veces ese encuentro se da sin contar con nuestros propios esfuerzos. Algunas veces parecen ser obra e intención de Dios.

Las Escrituras están llenas de historias donde Dios es quien nos encuentra, aun cuando ni sabíamos que estábamos perdidos. Así es como sucede entre nosotros y Dios: a menudo nos encuentra sin ni siquiera nosotros habérselo pedido. —Padre Joseph J. Juknialis

“Todo lo que tengo es de ustedes” Lucas 15:31

Nuestro Padre Celestial nos da todo, incluyendo el chance de compartir Su reino eterno. Sin embargo, como el Hijo Pródigo, a menudo somos tentados a alejarnos por el materialismo de nuestra sociedad. ¿Realmente queremos volverle la espalda a todo lo que Dios nos ofrece a cambio de riquezas materiales que no tienen un valor perdurable? Dios también quiere que seamos felices en la tierra, pero eso requiere que aceptemos libremente Su don de fe; poniéndolo a Él primero en todas las cosas y liberándonos de nuestra propia autosuficiencia.
