Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Following up on last weekend's announcement, Cardinal Tobin has officially approved Fr. Ray's request to retire, effective January 1, 2023. This will be a difficult parting for him and for us, since he has been an active part of our parish's life since 1986. I think it is fitting that we have a parish farewell for him on our parish feast day of St. John the Evangelist, Tuesday, December 27th. We will start with the 7:30pm Mass with Fr. Ray as the principal celebrant, followed by a light reception in Conlon Hall, where you will be able to personally offer him your thanks and farewell. Leaders of our various parish groups are cooperating in enlisting people for setting up the hall, celebrating the event, and cleaning up afterwards. If you would like to help, please be in touch with Humberto Fernandez or Fernando Perez, or your group's leader. Of course, if your schedule does not allow you to join on this occasion, Fr. Ray will still be celebrating daily and weekend Masses through January 1st.

Next weekend we will be taking up the special annual collection of the Retirement Fund for Religious. The U.S. bishops established this collection in 1988 to help address the profound shortage in retirement savings among US religious communities. Despite sustained generosity in this collection, numerous communities struggle to provide for aging members. Eldercare costs continue to rise while the percentage of religious who need care grows. Please see the insert in today's bulletin. Extra envelopes are available at the doors of the church.

This Thursday is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a holyday of obligation in the United States. See the Mass schedule on page 2 in this bulletin.

Looking ahead, Monday, December 12th is the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Masses in the morning will be at 7am and 9am in English. The evening Mass will begin at 7pm in Spanish, followed by a reception in Conlon Hall. All are welcome!

Msgr. Richard Arnholts, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

As she was stringing her Christmas lights Paula pondered the unsightly stump in her yard. Last spring she had noticed that her pretty red bush that was usually covered with tiny white flowers—wasn't! Then the leaves had come slowly and never reached their normal size. Within a few weeks they were turning brown and falling off the bush. It must be dead, she had thought. Perhaps the winter had been too hard on it. She hated to see it go, but late in September Paula found her ax and her courage, and chopped the bush down to a stump. She was about to lay the ax to the root when her neighbor stopped her. "Leave the stump through next summer. You never know. New healthy shoots can sprout from stumps that appear to be dead. As long as the roots are alive, there's hope." If there was hope for that stump, Paula thought, maybe there was hope for her seemingly fruitless life as well.

Again this week one of the O Antiphons expresses the spirit of the Advent scriptures. We pray, "Come, Flower of Jesse's stem," echoing Isaiah's spirit of hopeful expectation that a Messiah would sprout forth and flower from the seemingly dead stump of Jesse's family tree, inaugurating God's kingdom of justice and peace. We pray, "Sign for all peoples," conveying Paul's message that Jesus Christ showed God's faithfulness to the hopes of the patriarchs as well as mercy to the Gentiles. We pray, "Let nothing keep you from coming to our aid," reflecting John the Baptist's confidence that the Messiah and his kingdom are indeed "at hand."—Virginia Stillwell *Copyright © 2013, World Library Publications. Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"Therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." MATTHEW 3:10

Do you bear good fruit for Jesus? Do you spend time in prayer or do you waste it with mindless activity? Do you use your talent to help others or are you too busy? Do you use your treasure to support the Church or do you buy more things that go unused. Our time, talent and treasure are gifts from God. What we do with these gifts is our gift back to Him. What gifts are you planning to give to the Lord during this upcoming Christmas season?

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Siguiendo el anuncio del fin de semana pasado, el Cardenal Tobin ha aprobado oficialmente al Padre Ray la solicitud de retiro, a partir del 1 de enero de 2023. Esta será una despedida difícil para él y para nosotros, ya que ha sido una parte activa de la vida de nuestra parroquia desde 1986. Creo que es apropiado que tengamos una despedida parroquial para él en nuestra fiesta parroquial de San Juan Evangelista, martes 27 de diciembre. Comenzaremos con la Misa de 7:30pm con el Padre Ray como celebrante principal, seguida de una ligera recepción en Conlon Hall, donde podrá ofrecerle personalmente su agradecimiento y despedida. Los líderes de nuestros diversos grupos parroquiales están cooperando para reclutar personas para preparar el salón, celebrar el evento y limpiar después. Si desea ayudar, comuníquese con Humberto Fernández o Fernando Pérez, o el líder de su grupo. Por supuesto, si su horario no le permite unirse en esta ocasión, el Padre Ray seguirá celebrando Misas diarias y de fin de semana hasta el 1 de enero.

El próximo fin de semana haremos una colecta anual para el Fondo de Jubilación para Religiosos. Los obispos de Estados Unidos establecieron la colecta en 1988 para ayudar a abordar la profunda escasez de ahorros para la jubilación entre las comunidades religiosas de los Estados Unidos. A pesar de la generosidad sostenida en esta colecta, numerosas comunidades luchan por mantener a los miembros mayores. Los costos del cuidado de ancianos continúan aumentando mientras crece el porcentaje de religiosos que necesitan atención. Por favor vea el flyer en el boletín de hoy. Habrán sobres adicionales disponibles en las puertas de la iglesia.

Este jueves es la Solemnidad de la Inmaculada Concepción, día de precepto en los Estados Unidos. Vea el horario de Misas en la página 2 de este boletín.

Mirando hacia adelante, el lunes 12 de diciembre es la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Las Misas de la mañana serán a las 7:00am ya las 9:00am en Inglés. La Misa vespertina comenzará a las 7:00pm en Español, seguida de una recepción en Conlon Hall.
¡Todos son bienvenidos!

Monseñor Richard Arnholts, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

Al ir poniendo sus luces navideñas Paula se fijó en el feo tronco que estaba en su patio. La primavera pasada ella había notado que el hermoso arbusto, que normalmente se cubría de blancas flores pequeñas, ¡no tenía ninguna! Las hojas tampoco tenían su tamaño normal y crecían muy lentamente. En unas pocas semanas se estaban tornando color café y después se caían. Pensó que debía estar muerto. Tal vez el invierno severo le afectó. No quería deshacerse del arbusto, pero a finales de septiembre encontró su hacha y su valor, y lo cortó hasta que sólo quedó el tronco. Ya iba a cortar la raíz cuando su vecina la detuvo. “Deja el tronco hasta el verano próximo. Quién sabe si unos retoños saludables pudieran brotar del tronco que parece estar muerto. Mientras que las raíces estén vivas hay esperanza”. Paula pensó que si podía haber esperanza para ese arbusto, tal vez pudiera haber esperanza para su vida aparentemente infructífera.

Una vez más esta semana una de las Antifonas Oh expresa el espíritu de las Escrituras de Adviento: Ven “oh renuevo del tronco de Jesé”, y así se hace eco del espíritu esperanzado de Isaías por un Mesías que brotará y florecerá del aparentemente tronco muerto de la genealogía de Jesé, inaugurando de esta manera el reino de justicia y paz de Dios. Con la antifona oramos: “Te alzas como un signo para los pueblos”, y así se transmite el mensaje de Pablo de que Jesucristo mostró tanto la fidelidad de Dios a los patriarcas esperanzados como la misericordia de Dios a los paganos. La antifona continúa: “Ven a librarnos, no tardes más”, reflejando así la seguridad de Juan el Bautista de que el Mesías y su reino están realmente “cerca”.—Virginia Stillwell Derechos de autor © 2013, World Library Publications. Administradores: ¡Compartiendo Nuestro Tiempo, Talento, Y Tesoro!

“Por lo tanto, cada árbol que no de buenos frutos será cortado y tirado al fuego.” MATEO 3:10

¿Da buenos frutos para Jesús? ¿Pasa tiempo en oración o pierde su tiempo con actividades sin sentido? ¿Utiliza sus talentos para ayudar a los demás o está demasiado ocupado? ¿Usa sus tesoros para apoyar a la Iglesia o para comprar más cosas que no utiliza? Nuestro tiempo y nuestro talento son dones de Dios. Lo que nosotros hacemos con estos dones es nuestro regalo de vuelta a Dios. ¿Qué regalos planificas darle al Señor durante esta próxima temporada navideña?
