From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to the little ones." (Mt 11;25)

The wise and the learned refuse to repent. The little ones, on the other hand, are those who have experienced repentance.

The first are exemplified by Bethsaida, Chorazin and Capernaum; the second by Sodom Tire and Sidon.

How can you tell the difference? From a distance all towns look the same; from the horizon Bethsaida looks pretty much like Sodom, but get up close and the differences are immediately evident.

The wise and the learned defend themselves when corrected, lose patience easily, harbor self pity, find fault in others and like to complain. They can have an outward appearance of piety and holiness, they may be even be caring and charming; but touch their pride and they will turn on you. Do you know anyone like this? Their address can be found in Bethsaida, Chorazin or Capernaum.

The little ones are those who have been pierced by the words of the Gospel. They not only say: 'Lord, I am not worthy that you enter under my roof' but they actually believe it. They are patient, never jealous, not boastful or conceited; do not take seek their own advantage, never take offense or store up grievances. They do not rejoice in wrongdoing, are always ready to make allowances, to trust, to hope and to endure whatever comes.

These people live in Sodom. They are the tired and overburdened referred to in today's Gospel, who have finally found rest. They are the tax collectors and prostitutes who, having encountered Christ, enter the kingdom of Heaven first.

Under which roof will we hang our hat today? Are we the wise and the learned, or are we the little ones?

Jesus came to his native place....and they took offense at him". (Mt 13;57)

"No prophet is without honor except in his native place and among his own kin."

May we not take offense at Him today, may He not be without honor among his own kin.

Fr. Sean

Del Pastor

Queridos hermanos y hermanas

"Yo te alabo, Padre, Señor del Cielo y de la tierra, porque has mantenido ocultas estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos y las has revelado a la gente sencilla." (Mt 11,25)

Los sabios y los eruditos rehúsan arrepentirse. Los pequeños, por otro lado, son los que han experimentado arrepentimiento.

Los primeros son ejemplificados por Betsaida, Chorazin y Capernaum; los segundos por Sodoma Tiro y Sidón.

¿Cómo puedes notar la diferencia? Desde la distancia todas las ciudades parecen iguales; desde el horizonte Betsaida se parece bastante a Sodoma, pero acércate y las diferencias son inmediatamente evidentes.

Los sabios y los doctos se defienden cuando se corrigen, pierden la paciencia fácilmente, albergan autocompasión, encuentran faltas en los demás y les gusta quejarse. Pueden tener una apariencia exterior de piedad y santidad, pueden incluso ser cuidadosos y encantadores; pero tocan su orgullo y se volverán contra ti. ¿Conoces a alguien así? Su dirección se puede encontrar en Betsaida, Chorazin o Capernaum.

Los pequeños son los que han sido traspasados por las palabras del Evangelio. No solo dicen: 'Señor, no soy digno de que entres bajo mi techo', sino que realmente lo creen. Son pacientes, nunca celosos, no jactanciosos o engreídos; no busquen su propia ventaja, nunca se ofendan o acumulan agravios. No se regocijan en el mal, están siempre dispuestos a contribuir, a confiar, a esperar y a soportar lo que venga.

Estas personas que viven en Sodoma. Son los cansados y agobiados a los que se refiere el Evangelio de hoy, que finalmente han encontrado descanso. Son los recaudadores de impuestos y las prostitutas que, habiendo encontrado a Cristo, entran primero en el reino del Cielo.

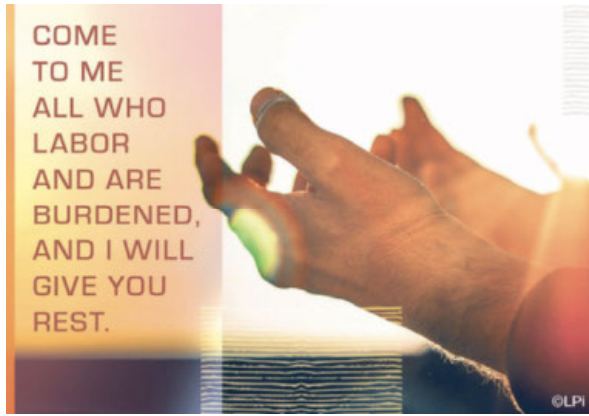

¿Bajo qué techo colgaremos nuestro sombrero hoy? ¿Somos los sabios y los eruditos, o somos los pequeños?

Jesús vino a su lugar natal.... y se ofendieron con él". (Mt 13,57)

"Si hay un lugar donde un profeta es despreciado, es en su patria y en su propia familia."

Que no nos ofendamos con Él hoy, que Él no esté sin honor entre sus propios parientes.

Fr. Sean
