A Reflection From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters

Jesus' relatives thought he was out of his mind. The scribes said he was possessed by Beelzebub. Jesus admonished the scribes regarding 'Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit', a sin which cannot be forgiven.

Murder, adultery, lying, stealing, can all be forgiven, but this Blasphemy cannot. Why not? Because it is a conscious and hardened opposition to the truth. It leads one away from humility and repentance, and without repentance there can be no forgiveness. The nature of this blasphemy is such that one does not repent of it, because those who commit it and persist in it do not know that they are sinning. They do not know because they have rejected the Holy Spirit's testimony about Christ and have hardened themselves to such a degree that they do not recognize their sin.

How could one arrive at such a pitiable state? The Cistercian monk, St. Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153) was once asked by brother Godfrey to write about the Degrees of Humility. Bernard replied that he knew more about the steps of pride than humility. So he proposed describing the steps of pride, and suggested to Godfrey that if he followed them in reverse order, he would arrive at Humility. Bernard can help us understand how one could sin against the Holy Spirit. Bernard's steps of pride are as follows:

1. Curiosity, when a person allows their sight and other senses to stray after things which do not concern them.
2. An unbalanced state of mind, showing itself in talk unseasonably joyous and sad.
3. Silly merriment, exhibited in too frequent laughter.
4. Conceit, expressed in much talking.
5. Eccentricity attaching exaggerated importance to one's own conduct.
6. Self-assertion holding oneself to be more pious than others.
7. Presumption readiness to undertake anything.
8. Defense of wrong-doing.
9. Unreal confession detected when severe penance is imposed.
10. Rebellion against the rules and the brethren.
11. Liberty to sin.
12. Habitual transgression.
