Dear Brothers and Sisters

Holy Week begins for us today with the celebration of Palm Sunday. Jesus enters triumphantly into Jerusalem, as great crowds spread their cloaks on the road, while others were cutting branches from trees and spreading them in his path.

But he knows that within just a few short days the cries of “Hosanna” will turn to shouts of “Crucify him!” He is not fooled by the adoration and the acclamation of the multitude. In fact, he does not enter the city as the king they are acclaiming him to be, but rather on a colt, a humble donkey..

The colt, the Gospel tells us, is tied up. Jesus sends his disciples to untie it, and bring it to him. They do not ask permission of the owner, they do as they are told: “And if anyone asks you what you are doing, tell them ‘The Master needs it’.”

This colt is an image of each one of us.

Our shackles can take many forms: fears, anxieties, neuroses, old hurts, disappointments, uncertainties, and doubts.

They can take the form of second-guessing oneself,

The niggling feeling that something is missing in life,

A false bravado, putting on a brave face, a stiff upper lip,

When the truth is far different.

We have been bound in Adam, bound by the shackles of sin. These bonds impede us from moving towards Jerusalem, towards Calvary, towards the Cross. One who has not been untied will never be able to move in such a direction. On the contrary, the opposite is true: they will always flee from the Cross. But there is one who is able to untie us. In doing so he will enter Jerusalem, and go to Calvary, reversing the direction in which humanity is traveling.

Holy Week opens a road, a way, for us to experience the Paschal Triduum.

Christ comes to untie each of us, and invites us to accompany him to the upper room and the Last Supper on Holy Thursday, to Calvary and the crucifixion on Good Friday, to the Easter Vigil of Holy Saturday and the Resurrection of Easter Sunday. We will live these events not as historic re-enactments, but as sacramental realities in which God comes to do in us that which we are unable to do for ourselves.

Being untied by Him, we can kiss our Cross on Good Friday, and thank God for it. We can do this because we know that the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday await us, the Resurrection of Christ.

Fr. Sean

CATECHESIS FOR ADULTS AND YOUTH

LET US NOT BE AFRAID TO ASK OURSELVES:
 WHAT AM I LIVING FOR?
 DO I LIVE MY FAITH IN MY EVERYDAY LIFE?
 DO MY SUFFERINGS HAVE MEANING BEHIND THEM?
 AM I TIRED OF LIVING MY FAITH ALONE?
 HOW CAN I PASS FAITH TO MY CHILDREN OR GRANDCHILDREN?

COME AND LISTEN!

Spiritual Adoption Program

Starting March 25, our parish will join the 9-month Spiritual Adoption Program until December 25. Prayer cards will be available at church exits —take one, name a baby at risk of abortion, and pray daily for their safety. A simple yet powerful way to support the movement for Life.

Message from Msgr. Rich

Dear Parishioners,

I had hoped to be able to celebrate Easter Sunday with you, but a development on Long Beach Island where I live has arisen. Although they had five Franciscan priests assigned to the parish as of last Fall, since then one died suddenly, one was transferred for college counseling, and a third is rather elderly and not in very good health. This leaves two active friars, which worked with only one central location for Mass in the winter, but with the opening of three worship sites on Easter Sunday, they clearly needed help. So I will be offering two Masses on Easter Sunday morning in the church in Surf City, which is only five blocks from my house. That said, I assure you of my prayers during Holy Week and at my Easter Masses, and I'm grateful for the prayers and good wishes so many of you often extend to me. Happy Easter to all!

Mensaje de Mons. Ricardo

Estimados feligreses,

Esperaba poder celebrar el domingo de Pascua contigo, pero ha surgido un desarrollo en Long Beach Island, donde vivo. Aunque tenían cinco sacerdotes franciscanos asignados a la parroquia desde el otoño pasado, desde entonces uno murió repentinamente, uno fue transferido para asesoramiento universitario y un tercero es bastante mayor y no goza de muy buena salud. Esto deja a dos frailes activos, que trabajaron con una sola ubicación central para la misa en invierno, pero con la apertura de tres sitios de adoración el domingo de Pascua, claramente necesitaban ayuda. Así que ofreceré dos misas el domingo de Pascua por la mañana en la iglesia de Surf City, que está a solo cinco cuabras de mi casa. Dicho esto, les aseguro mis oraciones durante la Semana Santa y en mis misas de Pascua, y estoy agradecido por las oraciones y buenos deseos que muchos de ustedes a menudo me extienden. ¡Feliz Pascua a todos!
