Dear Brothers and Sisters

“Lord, will only a few people be saved?” this question, asked of Jesus in the Gospel today, is probably not on our minds. We have many other questions, but not this one.

Who will be saved? This question is only asked by those who are aware that they need saving. But saving from what?

The beaches are full this time of year, and people usually swim in the designated areas, under the watchful eye of the lifeguards, sat high up on their chairs. Once in a while a whistle will sound, and the whole beach will stop, as the life guard stands up and begins signaling to someone in the deep to get back in. Everyone on the beach looks out to the person in the waves, to see if they swim back in to shore. We all knew that if they do not hear the whistle, or ignore it, or are unable to resist the current, the lifeguard has to go out and get them.

The swimmer may be unaware that they are in danger, but there is someone else whose job it is to keep an eye on them. If the alarm is not heeded, the lifeguard will risk their own life, and jump in to save them.

We are all on the beach. We are all in the water. There is a lifeguard on duty. His name is Jesus Christ. The one who thinks they don't need the lifeguard swims at their own peril. We call Jesus Our Lord and Savior.

But he is the Savior of what?

From what does he save us?

From what does he save you?

Such questions are disarmed, relegated to the banal, by what has been called the Empty Hell Theory. It goes something like this: God is good, He loves everyone, nobody is in danger, everything is fine. Conclusion, hell does not exist, there is nothing to worry about, there is no need for a Savior, keep on swimming.

The beach is beautiful, the sea is fantastic, there is no current, we're all great swimmers, go ahead and enjoy yourself. Why do we need a life guard on the beach if no one is drowning?

Jesus does not answer the question posed to him “who will be saved?”, but rather speaks of striving to enter through a gate, a door. There is a door which is open, which will one day be locked. Once it is locked there is nothing to be done, no amount of pleading, knocking, calling will be able to open it. This door is in front of us today. Can you see it, do you know how to enter it? There is a lifeguard on duty today. He has already jumped in to rescue all of us who need help. He is the door, the gate, the safe passage through the waves.

Fr. Sean

WHAT IS IT?
Launched by Cardinal Tobin in June 2025, and inspired by Evangelii Gaudium, this is an invitation to "PASTORAL CONVERSION"—a call for every member of the Church to take shared responsibility in renewing our Catholic presence by embracing evangelization and missionary outreach while adapting to today's cultural and social norms.

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF THIS INITIATIVE?

Renew Missionary Purpose

Deepen Parish Vitality

Foster Shared Listening & Action

WHY IS RENEWAL NEEDED NOW?

A CHANGING LANDSCAPE SINCE 1998*:

- Mass attendance + 53%
- Baptisms + 61%
- Marriages + 75%
- Funerals + 56%

FEWER PRIESTS TO SERVE*:

- Only 127 priests under 50
- By 2044, fewer than 131 pastors available

*In the Archdiocese of Newark

YET, THE POPULATION IS GROWING!

 Each county is projected to grow 3%+

 More people to reach with Christ's love

HOW WILL THIS WORK? Our faith must respond to today's realities. We will walk together in faith, listening, discerning, and acting to bring Christ to the world.

AREAS OF MISSION FOCUS:

- Evangelization and Outreach – How will we share the Gospel with all people in our area?
- Pastoral Care of the Faithful – How will we care for all Catholics in our parish communities?
- Long-Term Sustainability – How will we provide support for parishes into the future?

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS TO GUIDE US:

- Where are we now?
- Where is God calling us to go?
- How will we get there together?

GUIDING VALUES:

- Synodality - Listening, walking together
- Subsidiarity - Trusting local wisdom
- Solidarity - Unity in diversity

WHO'S INVOLVED?

- Clergy, religious, lay leaders, and YOU
- Guided by Bishop Saporito & RCAN Commissions
- Cardinal Tobin listens—but makes final decisions
