Dear Brothers and Sisters

More than a year ago, the Archdiocese of Newark entered into a process called "Pastoral Conversion." This process is meant to evaluate the current pastoral needs of our Archdiocese, to project the future pastoral needs and to seek the most pastoral and efficient way to meet these needs now and in the future.

Last October, all the priests of the Archdiocese had a full-day presentation on the process of Pastoral Conversion. The process was also a big part of the three-day Convocation that all priests attended at the end of May. This summer has been a time to collate all the information that has been collected and now it is time to move forward.

The information that is being evaluated includes the results of the Disciple Marker Survey that all parishioners were invited to complete. There were also other surveys for the priests of the Archdiocese. Also, a Workbook for each parish was developed that charted Mass attendance, sacramental celebrations, parishioner participation as well as the financial health of the parish.

The Listening Sessions will take place in CONLON HALL, please plan to attend on one of these dates:

IN ENGLISH:

- TUESDAY OCT 21st 7:00pm-9:00pm
- THURSDAY OCT 23rd 7:00pm-9:00pm

IN SPANISH:

- SATURDAY OCT 25TH 9:00am-11:00am

These sessions will be your opportunity to express your concerns and voice your opinion. We must all realize the changing demographics of the Archdiocese, the changing participation in the life of the parish of many Catholics, and the declining number of ordained ministers, compel us, as the Church of Newark, to make fundamental adjustments to ensure that the pastoral needs of Catholics continue to be met.

As the Cardinal has stressed, the process of Pastoral Conversion calls us to focus on three fundamental questions: Where are we now? Where are we going? How do we get there? As a parish community, it is important for us to have a voice in the future of our Archdiocese.

Fr. Sean
