SAINT OF THE WEEK OUR LADY OF FATIMA

PATRON FOR THOSE SEEKING PROTECTION AND HOPE

In 1917, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared six times to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal, urging daily recitation of the Rosary, penance, and reparation for sin. She revealed three secrets and requested the consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart, promising that it would ultimately triumph and peace would be granted to the world. The apparitions were approved by the Church as worthy of belief in 1930, and two of the children, Jacinta and Francisco Marto, were canonized as saints by Pope Francis in 2017.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

WE NEVER GIVE MORE HONOR TO JESUS
THAN WHEN WE HONOR HIS Mother...

- ST. LOUIS MARIE DE MONTFORT

Dear Brothers and Sisters

A few years ago, in my capacity as a Police Chaplain, I attended a three day course at the Bergen County Police Academy. The course was for active duty Police Officers, there were thirty of them from different Police Departments on the course.

One exercise asked the Police Officers to write a letter to someone who had been an important positive influence in their life. The letter was to express gratitude to this person, saying how they had made a difference in that Officers life. A few minutes silence passed while everyone wrote their letters.

The instructor then asked for a volunteer to share who it was they wrote to. Awkward silence in the room. Then a few piped up, sharing the names of the people they had written to, and why.

We were then asked for a volunteer to actually call the person they had written to, and read them the letter over the phone. There followed an even longer, more awkward silence! – Not an easy ask for a room full of Cops! But one volunteered. He had written his letter to his Mom. To the amazement, chuckles and joy of the rest of the cops in the room, he proceeded make the call to his mother!

I think he was praying she wouldn't pick up, but she did, and he put the call on speakerphone for all of us in the room to hear....

Cop: 'Hi Mom, it's me...' Mom: 'Oh hi sweetie, how are you?....'

He told his Mom where he was, and that as part of a training excessive he had been asked to write a letter of gratitude to a person he was thankful for, and that he was calling because he had written to her, and that the she was on speaker phone in a room full of Cops.

She said 'OK'. Her son then read his letter to her, as we all listened in silence. When he finished reading, his Mom said:

'O honey, that's so sweet, I don't know what to say, you made my day...'

The room erupted in applause, with loud whoops and high fives, and everyone shouting to the speaker: 'I love you Mom!'

That event changed the whole mood for the rest of the afternoon.

Each of us have a letter to write, or a phone call to make, or a conversation to have with our Mom. She will listen to us.... either in person, or on the phone, or from Heaven. Our Moms deserve to hear our gratitude. Expressing our gratitude to them also changes who we are. If that is true of our mothers, who gave us earthly life, how much more true is it of Jesus Christ, who is Risen from the dead, and gives us Eternal Life.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

Fr. Sean
