Happy Summer!

Dear Brothers and Sisters

I am delighted to announce that Cardinal Tobin has assigned Fr. Jose Eduardo Sanchez to the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Bergenfield. Fr. Jose Eduardo was ordained on May 23rd, 2026, and has been sent to us to begin his priestly ministry.

The evening before the presbyteral ordinations, Fr. Olly led a Holy Hour here for vocations and asked that we pray that one of the newly ordained priests would be sent here. Our prayers were answered!

Fr. Jose Eduardo is the oldest of seven brothers and sisters, all of whom live in Argentina. He was in his third year of studies to become an aeronautical engineer in that country when he came to Redemptoris Mater Seminary in Newark.

“Up to that moment, I never thought of leaving my small town,” he said. “It was everything to me, and I had everything I wanted near me,” he said.

His vocational journey has been a “miracle from God,” he says. Although he was raised Catholic, “I had not been particularly religious.”

“It was through the Neocatechumenal Way that God kept me in the Church,” he said, saying that the charism had been a great help to him and his family.

Feeling uncertain about his future, he asked God for guidance. Soon after, he went to the World Youth Day in Brazil. “During that pilgrimage, I not only found my calling, but my purpose for my life,” he said. “God showed me that he was not indifferent to my sufferings and that He has always been by me.” Following the event, Fr. Jose Eduardo began to attend vocational discernment meetings. A year later, he would board a plane for the U.S. “I remember the day when I left for Buenos Aires to depart for Newark as if it was yesterday because it was the very first time I saw my dad cry and my mom comforting him,” he recalled. “That memory has accompanied me in the years since, because I saw the love of God and my parents’ freedom and trust in God in letting me go.”

After completing his first year of theology, as part of his seminary formation, Fr. Jose Eduardo was sent as an itinerant missionary on a three-year mission trip to different U.S. locations. “Up to that moment, I still had many doubts about my vocation,” he said, adding that the itinerancy helped him overcome his worries. “During those years, I saw how God was victorious over all my fears,” he said. He returned from the mission confident that God was guiding him to the priesthood.

Fr. Jose Eduardo will officially begin his ministry in July, but he is here now and will be helping out with some Masses.

Asked what message he would like to share with St. John’s, Fr. Jose Eduardo said, “God is faithful and very near to us.”

Fr. Sean

St. John's Food Pantry

A big thank you to the letter carriers from the Bergenfield post office. They collected 90 bags of donated groceries and delivered them to St John's food pantry. TERRIFIC!

With this support our wonderful food pantry volunteers were able to provide a wide assortment of food to 70 needy families (250 people) at our monthly food distribution on a rainy Memorial Day. A caring group of teenagers from Bergenfield High School did a great job on Sunday afternoon helping our team sort and pack out all the food donations.

OUTSTANDING! Thank you for your continued support of St John's food pantry. Cash donations or checks may be dropped off or mailed to the rectory. Food donations may be placed in the Rubbermaid shed behind the Parish Life Center. Jesus said. "IT IS BETTER TO GIVE, THAN RECEIVE".
