Dear Brothers and Sisters

I just returned from Italy, and together with 800 priests, participated in a 2x2 mission to announce the Gospel. Before going on the mission, Kiko Arguello (a layman) addressed these words to us:

“God will accompany you! You will pray the Rosary every day, which will help you. It will be a wonderful experience because the Lord will accompany you. And if you have some small suffering, that also will be a joy, and you will all return full of joy. Do not be afraid to wage war against the devil.

He will be able to do very little to you, because all of you are shod with the zeal to announce the Gospel. The danger comes when you settle down, that is, when you take off the sandals of the announcement of the Gospel. Then the devil attacks you immediately. You cannot accept money. You are to go without money and without a cell phone. As you can imagine, the Lord in heaven is full of joy. The time has come in which Saint Francis, Saint Dominic, and Saint Ignatius of Loyola, these saints, rise up again and walk with you throughout Europe, proclaiming the Gospel. And thousands will come after you, because Europe needs to be evangelized anew. At this moment the Lord is telling us to go to the priests. Before we begin the rite, I would like to say something to you. Yet what matters is not what I tell you, but what the Lord Himself will inspire you to do. You already understand that the Lord is sending you like sheep among wolves. In other words, He sends us as little ones.

The Lord sends you to the parishes of His Church as a sign of His love and benevolence toward His Church. This does not mean that you cannot speak with people you meet on the street. You may proclaim the Gospel along the way. The Lord has already foreseen everything. Remember that you have been entrusted with a wonderful mission. You are clothed in a radiant, invisible armor. You have been invested with a mission. That is why you are so precious at this moment. And everyone who comes into contact with you will be sanctified through your mission. It is the mission that sanctifies you; it is being sent that sanctifies you, not your own abilities. The risen Jesus Christ, who is in heaven, will accomplish what you proclaim. If you announce to a priest that God desires to give him the Holy Spirit and forgive his sins, God will do it. God will not allow your words to return empty, because He accompanies you. The Gospel tells us that Jesus ascended into heaven and continued to accompany the apostles, confirming His Word with signs and wonders. Every apostle must show that he has been sent through signs and wonders. The true sign and wonder of the Gospel is conversion. To change a man's heart, to turn him away from evil, selfishness, and the love of money..this is impossible for man! These are the true signs: that a man abandons sin.

Remember that Saint Francis of Assisi spoke about perfect joy. I believe that you will have the opportunity to experience it. Brother Leo once asked Saint Francis, "What is perfect joy?" Saint Francis replied, 'Suppose we arrive at the convent exhausted, freezing cold, with snow on the ground. We have not eaten, and no one has welcomed us. We long to enter the convent, if only to have something to eat and then go to sleep. We knock at the door, but the guardian mistakes us for bandits and refuses to open. We say, 'Brother Seraphim, it is us.' But he replies, 'No, you are bandits.' We knock again, but nothing happens. Finally, the guardian comes out with a stick and begins beating us, leaving us bleeding in the snow. If, at that moment, we understand that Jesus Christ has permitted this in order to grant us a grace, and we accept it in union with Christ crucified, then we shall experience perfect joy.' This is something profoundly deep”.

Fr. Leo

NFP Week July 19th-25th

The natural beauty of creation and the divine design of human life invite us into a deep communion of love with God. During Natural Family Planning Week, married couples are especially encouraged to honor this sacred design by remaining guided by love and open to life. This annual observance invites us to reflect on the gift of fertility and the profound role of couples as faithful stewards of creation.

To learn about the Church's teaching about married love and the gift of life and the ethical methods of NFP, see uscbb.org/nfp

EL MATRIMONIO

¡Crea esperanza para el futuro!

La Planificación Familiar Natural apoya los dones de Dios del amor y la vida en el matrimonio.

Semana de la PFN: Del 19 al 25 de julio

La belleza natural de la creación y el diseño divino de la vida humana nos invitan a una profunda comunión de amor con Dios. Durante la Semana de la Planificación Familiar Natural (PFN), se alienta especialmente a las parejas casadas a honrar este diseño sagrado, manteniéndose guiadas por el amor y abiertas a la vida. Esta celebración anual nos invita a reflexionar sobre el don de la fertilidad y el profundo papel de los esposos como fieles administradores de la creación.

Para conocer las enseñanzas de la Iglesia sobre el amor conyugal, el don de la vida y los métodos éticos de la PFN, visite usccb.org/nfp
