Living God's Word

Some believers tithe. Others try to keep a balanced perspective by living simply. There are some who choose to place a self-imposed limit on their savings. And then there are those radical few who choose to live without any possessions or belongings beyond what is absolutely essential. Regardless of the path we choose, we must seek to remove every obstacle to embracing our loving God. Copyright © 2014, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

When the rich young man in this week's Gospel asks Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life, the answer is simply "nothing." Or to put it another way, "You don't have to do anything to earn it. Simply do not let anything get in the way. Don't kill, or commit adultery, or steal, or lie, or defraud, or any such things that tend to muddy the focus of our lives." Beyond that it seems we don't have to do anything. But, the young man protests, he has avoided all these things. And so the reply Jesus then offers is, in effect, don't let your riches get in the way either.

Easier said than done, and more difficult than imagined. More difficult than threading a needle with camel hair when the hair is still on the camel; more difficult than getting a camel inside your house, whether through your pet door or your back door or maybe even your garage door. Camels don't shrink. Neither does our hold on riches. Both tend to get in the way.

So what does one then do, we ask. Curious—that was the same response in Jesus' day as well. And over the centuries believers have sought ways to keep wealth in perspective, or at least some things that might help do so. Yet it's all about trying to make sure that as little as possible gets in the way of finding God among the mishmash of life. —Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

- MARK 10:25

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Este es el último fin de semana para comprar boletos para nuestra Rifa 50-50, ya que el sorteo es el próximo sábado 16 de octubre. Cómprelos hoy después de la Misa o devuélvalos a la rectoría antes del viernes.

Los Caballeros de Colón están llevando a cabo su Campaña Rosas por Vida hoy después de todas las Misas. Sus donaciones ayudan a reducir el costo de los autobuses que irán a Washington DC en enero para la Marcha Anual por el Derecho a la Vida.

Mañana es Columbus Day. Aunque observaremos el horario regular de Misas de lunes a viernes, la Oficina de Educación Religiosa estará cerrada todo el día y la rectoría estará abierta para reservar Misas SOLAMENTE de 4:00p.m. a 10:00p.m.

En los próximos dos fines de semana, nuestro Comité de Respeto a la Vida llevará a cabo su Rifa anual del Derecho a la Vida de Nueva Jersey. Los boletos cuestan a $10 cada uno o $100 por libro de 10 boletos. El primer premio es un SUV Volvo 2022 y los tres premios menores son los certificados de regalo de Shop-Rite de $1,000, $750 y $500.

Tendremos una Misa de Unción en inglés el próximo sábado 16 de octubre a las 11:30am. Consulte el resto del boletín de hoy para obtener más información.

Monseñor Richard Arnholts, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

Cuando el joven rico en el Evangelio de esta semana le pregunta a Jesús qué debe hacer para alcanzar la vida eterna la respuesta es sencillamente “nada”. O diciéndolo con otras palabras, “No tienes que hacer nada para ganártela; sencillamente no hagas nada que le ponga obstáculos. No mates, no cometas adulterio, no robes, no mientas, no defraudes, ni hagas ninguna otra cosa que tienda a enturbiar el epicentro de nuestra vida”. Parece que no tenemos que hacer más nada que eso. Pero el joven dice que ya él ha evitado todas esas cosas. Y la respuesta que le ofrece Jesús es, en efecto, que tampoco deje que sus riquezas le obstaculicen el camino.

Pero del dicho al hecho hay un gran trecho y el hecho es más difícil de lo que podemos imaginar. Más difícil que ensartar una aguja con pelo de camello cuando el pelo todavía está en el camello; más difícil que hacer que el camello entre en tu casa, ya sea por la puertecita de tu mascota o por tu puerta trasera, o ni aun por la puerta de tu cochera. Los camellos no se encojen; ni tampoco nuestro apego a las riquezas. Ambas cosas tienden a obstaculizar el camino.

Entonces, ¿qué hacer?, nos preguntamos. Curiosamente ésa era la misma pregunta también en los tiempos de Jesús. Y a través de los siglos los creyentes han buscado las maneras de poner las riquezas en perspectiva o al menos encontrar cosas que ayuden a hacerlo. Sin embargo, todo lo que hay que hacer es tratar de que haya los menos obstáculos posibles en nuestro camino hacia el encuentro con Dios, aun en medio de los revoltijos de la vida. —Padre Joseph J. ### Administradores: ¡Compartiendo Nuestro Tiempo, Talento, Y Tesoro!

“Es más fácil que un camello pase por el ojo de una aguja que un rico entre en el reino de Dios”. -MARCOS 10:25

Jesús utiliza un lenguaje fuerte que no quisiéramos escuchar. Sin embargo, todos somos llamados a ser generosos con todos nuestros dones. No solo con los que señalamos y escogemos, sino con todos nuestros dones, ¡y especialmente con los de mayor significado para nosotros! Eso incluye nuestro tiempo de oración a Dios, nuestro talento para participar en los ministerios parroquiales y nuestros tesoros para apoyar nuestra iglesia local y otras caridades.

October is Pregnancy & Infant Loss Awareness Month

The loss of an infant is devastating. National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day honors those lives lost to miscarriage, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, stillbirth, the death of a newborn, and more. On October 15, take the opportunity to reflect, honor, and come together over pregnancy and infant loss. If you have a loved one who has experienced this loss, take the time to give them the love and support needed to process and recover.

On this day in many parts of the world, people will light a candle and offer prayers in memory of those lost babies, born and unborn. Bereaved parents, their families, and friends, unite with each other and others across the world to commemorate the lives of babies who have died. We encourage participation in International Wave of Light, by lighting candles at 7:00 p.m. as a remembrance.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Algunos creyentes contribuyen con su diezmo. Otros tratan de mantener una perspectiva equilibrada viviendo de manera sencilla. Hay algunos que se ponen ellos mismos un límite en sus ahorros. Y también existen unos pocos radicales que viven sin ninguna posesión o sin bienes propios, a no ser por lo absolutamente esencial. En toda instancia debemos remover todo lo que obstaculice nuestro tierno encuentro con Dios. Derechos de autor © 2014, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados
