*Tuesday is Election day
all who are registered to vote should vote!*

“We encourage all citizens, particularly Catholics, to embrace their citizenship not merely as a duty and privilege, but as an opportunity meaningfully to participate in building the culture of life. Every voice matters in the public forum. Every vote counts. Every act of responsible citizenship is an exercise of significant individual power. We must exercise that power in ways that defend human life, especially those of God’s children who are unborn, disabled or otherwise vulnerable. We get the public officials we deserve. Their virtue -- or lack thereof -- is a judgment not only on them, but on us. Because of this, we urge our fellow citizens to see beyond party politics, to analyze campaign rhetoric critically, and to choose their political leaders according to principle, not party affiliation or mere self-interest” (US Bishops, Living the Gospel of Life, n. 34)

BLUE MASS

Cardinal Tobin invites you to the 28th Annual Liturgy of the Blue Mass, commemorating the 20th Anniversary of 9/11, honoring & in memory of law enforcement personnel, as well as those officers from New Jersey who have died during this past year. The Mass will take place on Thursday, November 4th at 10am at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark.

Next weekend, we will return to Eastern Standard Time.

Please turn your clocks BACK
ONE HOUR before going to bed next Saturday night.
Masses on Sunday,
November 8th,
will be on Standard Time.

We would like to thank all of our various parish groups that participated in leading an hour of prayer in honor of our Blessed Mother.

Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

We welcome several seminarians and priest faculty from our Immaculate Conception Seminary who will share some of their own vocation stories and be available after the Masses for questions and conversation.

Tomorrow, November 1st is All Saints Day, usually observed as a holyday of obligation. Since it falls on a Monday this year, there is no obligation to attend Mass. We will have our regular schedule of daily parish Masses. Envelopes for All Saints Day may be put in baskets near the altar on that Monday or in next weekend's collection.

Tuesday, November 2nd is All Souls Day. In addition to our morning Masses at 7am and 9am, we will offer our annual Mass of Remembrance at 7:30pm for all those who died and had funeral services at our parish during the past year. Starting November 2nd, we also have our Novena of Masses for all those whom you ask to remember. Please list their names on one of the special All Souls Envelopes available at the doors of the church or which you received with your regular offering envelopes in the mail, and return it by tomorrow!

Msgr. Richard Arnholz, Pastor

Reflection on Today's Scripture Readings

Gospel love is not about feelings. It's about choosing to care regardless of how we feel. It's about making decisions based upon the vision of Jesus regardless of how many other visions are demanding our allegiance. If we wait until we feel like loving, well, we may in fact never get around to loving. Gospel love is about the will without paying any attention at all to the emotions.

In The Road Less Traveled, M. Scott Peck distinguishes between infatuation and love. Infatuation, he says, is when we allow all the walls that we have put up in order to protect ourselves to collapse and thus permit another to enter into the most sacred and vulnerable portions of our lives. We think that in such a way we are becoming one with another because there are no more walls to divide us, except that before long our walls begin to go back up one by one.

On the other hand, notes Peck, real love is not about collapsing our walls but about expanding them in never-ending fashion, thereby choosing to allow more and more people into the deepest portions of our lives. Real love is the choices we make and not feelings we experience. Once we begin to choose to live in such a fashion, says Jesus, we are not far from the kingdom of God.

Stewardship: Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure!

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

- MARK 12:33

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

Escritorio del Párroco

Estimados Feligreses,

Damos la bienvenida a nuestros seminaristas y sacerdotes de nuestro Seminario de la Inmaculada Concepción que compartirán algunas de sus historias de vocacionales y estarán disponibles después de las Misas para saludar y conversar.

Mañana, primero de noviembre es el Día de Todos los Santos, generalmente observado como un día de precepto. Dado que este año cae en lunes, no hay obligación de asistir a la Misa. Tendremos nuestro horario regular de Misas parroquiales diarias. Los sobres para el Día de Todos los Santos pueden colocarse en las canastas cerca del altar ese lunes o con la colecta del próximo fin de semana.

El martes dos de noviembre es el Día de los Difuntos. Además de nuestras Misas matutinas a las 7am y a las 9am, ofreceremos nuestra Misa anual por los difuntos a las 7:30 pm, para todos los que fallecieron y tuvieron servicios funerarios en nuestra parroquia durante el año pasado. A partir del dos de noviembre, también tenemos nuestra Novena de Misas para todos aquellos a quienes pidan recordar. Por favor, anote sus nombres en uno de los sobres especiales de All Souls/Todos los Difuntos disponibles por las salidas de la iglesia o que recibió con sus sobres de ofrendas regulares por correo, ¡y devuélvalo mañana!

Monseñor Richard Arnhols, Párroco

Reflexión de las Escrituras de Hoy

El amor del Evangelio no tiene que ver con sentimientos. Se trata más bien de ocuparnos en el servicio necesario a pesar de cómo nos sentimos. Se trata de hacer decisiones fundamentadas en la visión de Jesús a pesar de las tantas otras visiones que exigen nuestra lealtad. Si esperamos a sentirnos cariñosos, bueno, lo más probable es que nunca lleguemos a amar. El amor del Evangelio tiene que ver con la voluntad, sin prestarle atención alguna a las emociones.

En el libro La nueva psicología del amor (título original: The Road Less Traveled) M. Scott Peck hace una distinción entre el encaprichamiento y el amor. Dice él que el encaprichamiento es cuando permitimos que todas las murallas que hemos puesto para protegernos se derrumben a fin de permitir que otra persona entre en los rincones más sagrados y vulnerables de nuestra vida. Nosotros pensamos que de esa manera seremos uno con la otra persona, porque ya no hay murallas que nos separen, pero en poco tiempo nuestras murallas vuelven de nuevo a erigirse, una por una.

Por lo contrario, dice Peck, el amor verdadero no tiene que ver con derrumbar nuestras murallas, sino de ir las extendiendo en un proceso interminable, de manera que más y más personas puedan entrar en esos rincones íntimos de nuestra vida. El amor verdadero tiene que ver con las opciones que tomemos y no con los sentimientos que experimentemos. Una vez que decidimos vivir de esa manera, dice Jesús, no estamos lejos del reino de Dios. —Padre Joseph J. Juknialis *Derechos de autor © 2014, World Library Publications. ### Administradores: ¡Compartiendo Nuestro Tiempo, Talento, Y Tesoro!

“Y amar a Dios con todo el corazón, con todo el entendimiento y con todas las fuerzas, y amar al prójimo como a uno mismo, es más importante que todos los holocaustos y todos los sacrificios.”

- Marcos 12:33

De todos los dones que Dios nos da, Él que más quiere es nuestro corazón. Él quiere que compartamos por amor a Él, no por obligación. Utilizar nuestro talento en el ministerio parroquial y contribuir con dinero para apoyar nuestra misión parroquial es importante, pero más importante es pasar tiempo en oración con Dios diariamente y discernir como Él nos llama a ser generosos con todos nuestros dones. No solamente los visibles, sino los invisibles como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón.

The Bethlehem Christian Families

The carving of the Olive Wood Tree has been inherited since the time of our Lord, Jesus Christ. It was passed down from father to son for many generations including our family. More than 80% of the Christian community income comes from tourism and the olive wood trade. However, due to the ongoing difficult circumstances and the tremendous decrease in tourism the Christian community has suffered many hardships that led many Christian Families to leave their homes in search of work and safety.

Our mission is to support and strengthen the presence of Christianity in the Holy Land by selling their beautiful olive wood artifacts here in the United States. We have been so blessed and so grateful to have had the opportunity to travel all around the United States to different parishes for the past 15 years to represent these less fortunate Christians. We are happy to announce that we will be visiting your parish Nov. 6th & 7th.

We encourage you to look over their beautiful hand carved items. We value your support through these unprecedented times. We will be accepting cash credit cards & checks.

May God bless you and keep you safe.

OLIVEWOOD ARTICLES

You will have another opportunity to purchase handmade religious & other olivewood creations next weekend, after all the Masses, this time sponsored by Bethlehem Christian Families. This will be the final opportunity before Christmas.

LOVE GOD

As we near the end of the liturgical year we listen to Gospel readings from the final stage of Jesus' ministry—his teaching in Jerusalem. This Sunday Jesus is in conversation with one of the scribes of the temple. In a rare occurrence Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments—to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself.

In today's selection from Deuteronomy Moses gives this teaching to the Israelites as the core of their life of faith and prayer, and Psalm 18 echoes this prayer with the words, "I love you, O LORD, my strength" (Psalm 18:2). Jews and Christians agree that our greatest responsibility is to love the one and only God, and that we cannot claim to love God without loving our neighbor as ourselves. Copyright © J. S. ### Come & Pray

This week's Adoration Schedule:

Tues. 12pm – 5:45pm

Wed., & Thurs. ~ 12pm—6:30pm

All are invited.

WORLDWIDE SYNOD

Pope Francis has called for the Synod 2021-2023, "For a Synodal Church: Communion – Participation – Mission," to take place in Rome in 2023.

The word "Synodality" means "journeying with." It refers to the people of God, our Church, clergy, religious, & laity all walking together, guided by the Holy Spirit, collaborating on how best to make the Gospel heard in our time.

With this understanding, we hope to move forward with listening sessions in our own parish in the next few months to hear what the Holy Spirit asks of us in the 21st Century. More information will be forthcoming.

Follow the saints because those who follow them will become saints.

—St. Clement I

Spiritual Adoption

Six Month Developing Baby

Your spiritually adopted baby is growing quite beautifully now. His weight is approaching 2 pounds. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

will be prayed at 3pm during our Tuesday, Wednesday, & Thursday adoration days.

All are invited to come & pray the prayers of this holy devotion.

Living God's Word

Loving one's neighbor as oneself stands the common wisdom of "charity begins at home" on its head. Yet Jesus' commandments are not new. It makes one wonder how the common wisdom got to be so common. Copyright © 2014, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

El próximo fin de semana regresaremos a la hora estándar del este. Por favor, retroceda una hora antes de irse a dormir el próximo sábado por la noche.

Misas los domingos,
8 de noviembre
estará en hora estándar.

AMA A DIOS

Al acercarnos al final del año litúrgico escuchamos las lecturas del Evangelio de la etapa final del ministerio de Jesús: sus enseñanzas en Jerusalén. Este domingo Jesús está en conversación con uno de los escribas del templo. En un hecho más bien raro, Jesús y el escriba están de acuerdo con los dos mandamientos: amar a Dios con todo tu ser y amar a tu prójimo como a ti mismo.

En la selección del Deuteronomio hoy, Moisés enseña a los hijos de Israel lo que es el centro de su vida de fe y oración, y el Salmo 17 hace eco a esta oración con las palabras: “Yo te amo, SEÑOR, tú eres mi fuerza” (Salmo 17:2). Judíos y cristianos están de acuerdo en que nuestra mayor responsabilidad es amar al Dios uno y único, y que no podemos pretender amar a Dios sin amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos. ## SÍNODO MUNDIAL

El Papa Francisco ha convocado el Sínodo 2021-2023, “Por una Iglesia sinodal: Comunión - Participación - Misión”, que tendrá lugar en Roma en 2023.

La palabra "sinodalidad" significa "viajar con". Se refiere al pueblo de Dios, nuestra Iglesia, el clero, los religiosos y los laicos caminando juntos, guiados por el Espíritu Santo, colaborando en la mejor manera de hacer que el Evangelio se escuche en nuestro tiempo.

Con este entendimiento, esperamos seguir adelante con las sesiones de escucha en nuestra propia parroquia en los próximos meses para escuchar lo que el Espíritu Santo nos pide en el siglo XXI. Próximamente habrá más información.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Amar al prójimo como a sí mismo pone de cabeza a la sabiduría común que dice que “la caridad comienza por casa”. No obstante, los mandamientos de Jesús no son nuevos. Uno se pregunta cómo la sabiduría común llegó a ser tan común. Derechos de autor © 2014, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados.
